

GLA Mid-Winter Conference
Clayton State University
December 1, 2006

GLA Academic Division Minutes

The meeting was conducted by the incoming chair, Callie McGinnis.

New officers were introduced:

Cathy Jeffrey, Vice-Chair/Chair Elect
Cathy Carpenter, ACRL Chapters Council Rep.
Amy Bursi (formerly Moore), Secretary
Ravonne Green, ACRL Legislative Liaison

The committee discussed the luncheon speaker for the academic lunch at COMO. As Vice-Chair, Cathy Jeffrey will be in charge of retaining a speaker. The following names were proposed as potential speakers:

- ✦ Jack Conyers – speaks on Tunnis Campbell of McIntosh County
- ✦ Buddy Sullivan – speaks on Sapelo Island
- ✦ Taylor Schoettle
- ✦ June Hall McCash – speaks on Jekyll Island
- ✦ John Hunter – curator at the Jekyll Island Museum
- ✦ Erik Calonius – author of The Wanderer: the Last American Slave Ship and the Conspiracy That Set Its Sails

Bill Nelson noted that advance planning is required in order to obtain money from ACRL for the speaker fee.

Betty Paulk discussed academic papers. In early 2007, there will be a call for submission of papers. Submissions are limited to GLA members. The papers must be related to academic libraries. Awards are given from EBSCO and Blackwell. Anyone interested in reviewing academic papers should contact Justin Otto (justin.otto@emory.edu), the chair of the committee. Betty encouraged all GLA members to submit papers and encourage their colleagues to submit papers.

The committee also suggested programming topics for the COMO Conference:

Topics:

- ✦ RDA Cataloging rules
- ✦ Copyright and fair use
- ✦ Google print project
- ✦ Multimedia formats
- ✦ Social networking

Possible Speaker:

Betsy Griffies
Carrie Russell, Lolly Gasaway

- ⊕ Web 2.0 software
 - ⊕ Authority Control
 - ⊕ Where is library automation going?
 - ⊕ Designing information literacy by noting what high schools are doing
 - ⊕ Discipline specific information literacy
 - ⊕ Transformation of the library in the 21st century
- Thomas Mann, LOC