- Ashley Hoffman reviewed 2016
 - MLIS program fair in June at Oglethorpe College
 - Annual conference (GACOMO) – one sponsored event (resume help) and one fun, mingle-type event (board game night)
 - Formation of Coastal Georgia Librarians group
 - Metro Atlanta Library Association (MALA) – sponsored meet up over the holidays

- Kat Greer discussed 2017
 - Solidify partnership of Atlanta Emerging Librarians (AEL) and NMRT – more cross-promotion and marketing
 - North Georgia Associated Libraries (NGAL) webinar in January
 - Suggestion made to send emails to library schools to increase membership
 - Georgia Libraries Conference
 - Resume review not well attended. Discussed other ideas including “first-timer buddy system” and drop in resume help at GLA booth or near it
 - Lydia Hofstetter working on finding a place for meet-up in Columbus. Wednesday night preferred.
 - Discussion with Ashley Dupuy regarding GLA giveaways
 - Budget
 - $500 AEL
 - $150 MLIS programs fair
 - $500 Georgia Libraries Conference
 - $250 Savannah/Coastal Georgia group – asking for $500 this year
 - Rosemary Humphrey distributed AEL business cards and asked for members for the 2017 planning committee. Mingle with the Admins scheduled for Saturday, January 14, 2017 at 11 am at Manuel’s Tavern.
