

What Makes Up the Georgia Council of Media Organizations?

Georgia Association for Instructional Technology, Inc.

The Georgia Association for Instructional Technology, Inc. (GAIT) is open to all who are interested in improving education through the use of media and technology. The membership is diverse and includes public school educators, corporate trainers, vocational instructors, college media directors, university professors, library/media specialists, commercial vendors and many, many more. All unite in activities designed to expand and diversify information and communications technology to improve instruction through the systematic development, utilization and management of learning resources including people, processes and technology.

GAIT is the Georgia affiliate of the international Association for Educational Communications and Technology (AECT) [www.aect.org] Being a member of GAIT plugs one into a network of colleagues who provide one another with informal information exchange and who join together to work on various committees and activities. Because GAIT is a diverse organization, members may often interact with others outside their own work setting who share common interests in teaching, learning and technology.

GAIT Membership Benefits

GAIT Co-Sponsors (with GaCOMO) an annual joint professional development conference. The organization participates in the annual Georgia Library Legislative Day at the State Capitol; co-Sponsors, with the Georgia Library Media Association (GLMA), the Georgia Library Media Specialist of the Year Award; and co-Sponsors, with the Georgia Library Association (GLA), the Georgia Student Media Festival. Georgia annually has a large number of winners in AECT's International Student Media Festival (ISMF) which is hosted as part of the annual AECT Convention. [www.ismf.net/]

GAIT members keep current with association news and information through the GAIT Web Connection, an online news-letter, and GAIT website. (<http://www.gait-inc.org>)

Georgia Library Association

The Georgia Library Association is an umbrella organization encompassing members from public, school, academic, and special libraries, including professional and paraprofessional staff, public library trustees and friends of libraries. GLA was founded in 1897 for the purpose of promoting public library funding, establishing a library training program in the state, and setting up a state commission to oversee the library interests of the state. Its current focus lies along similar lines, with attention to legislative, financial, technological, and library training issues and advocacy for libraries of all types being among its chief concerns. With membership approaching 1000, GLA makes a significant impression on legislators, particularly since it represents all of the library interests in Georgia. The Georgia Library Day and the state's participation in the ALA National Library Legislation Day are major activities of the association. GLA has memberships in, is affiliated with, or sponsors the following professional organizations: the American Library Association (ALA); American Association of School Librarians (AASL); Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL); Council of Library Administration and Management Association (LAMA); Public Library Association (PLA); Freedom to Read Foundation (FTRF); Southeastern Library Association (SELA); and Georgia Association of Media Assistants (GAMA). It can draw upon considerable resources to facilitate workshops and other training programs for librarians, media specialists, and paraprofessionals. GLA awards two scholarships annually to students enrolled in a program leading to a Master's Degree in library/information science. Noteworthy achievements of members and "lay" persons in the advancement of and advocacy for Georgia's libraries are recognized through the association's awards program. In over 100 years of existence, GLA has been instrumental in the growth of Georgia's libraries, and will continue to throughout the twenty-first century. (<http://gla.georgialibraries.org>)

Georgia Library Media Association, Inc.

The Georgia Library Media Association dates back to 1930 when the Department of School Libraries of the Georgia Education Association was formed. In 1947 the Children's and Young People's Section of GLA and the Georgia Education Association joined together to foster library services to schools and children, and this union continued until 1970, when the Georgia Library Media Department (GLMD) of the Georgia Association of Education (GAE) was formed. In 1975 the Georgia Educational Media Association and the Georgia Library Media Department merged as GLMD, and in 1988 the organization separated from the GAE and reorganized as the current GLMA. It became incorporated in 1993, and continues as the largest professional organization serving school library media professionals in Georgia. Our members are dedicated to the advancement and empowerment of school library media specialists and to promote the nine literacy standards for student learning as stated in Information Power Building Partnerships for Learning by ALA. GLMA a state affiliate of the American Association of School Librarians (AASL), a division of the American Library Association and GLMA, Inc. is affiliated with the Georgia Association of Educators (GAE).

What does GLMA do for our members?

- GLMA represents your interest in an active liaison and advisory role with other state library organizations and with national and regional professional organizations.
- GLMA supports your professional development by keeping you in touch with current trends and issues in the profession.
- GLMA gives school media specialists a voice in the Georgia legislature and the State Board of Education through the Governmental Relations Committee, and through networking of GLMA members.
- GLMA maintains a web site and publishes an online newsletter to keep our members informed of issues concerning our organization and profession.
- GLMA uses the Georgia Media Listserv to have ongoing discussions on topics of interest to all library media specialists.
- GLMA presents district meetings that provide an opportunity for each member to become involved in the organization by holding office, serving on various committees and being able to present at conferences.
- GLMA participates in an annual conference (GaCOMO) that provides quality programs and outstanding speakers to provide ongoing professional learning experiences for Library Media Specialists.

- GLMA presents the Summer Leadership Conference in which media specialists contribute to updating the documents used by Library Media Specialists throughout the state. It also provides exciting professional learning and networking opportunities.
- GLMA recognizes professional excellence by presenting awards for outstanding service such as the Media Specialist of the Year Award, the Freedom of Information Award, and Mini-Grants.
- GLMA sponsors the state-wide Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl, a successful reading competition that encourages teams of students to engage in award-winning books.
- GLMA supports the Georgia Peach Teen Book Award with the state's public libraries.
- GLMA supports Library Media Specialists who are National Board Certification Candidates.

A Word of Welcome...

Welcome to Georgia COMO XXIII!!

Thank you for joining the 23rd annual collaboration of the Georgia Association for Instructional Technology, Georgia Library Media Association, and Georgia Library Association. We hope that our annual state conference will provide inspiration and education for our diverse attendees. There is an impressive selection of keynote presentations, peer concurrent sessions, authors, and exhibits for all.

The GaCOMO XXIII Steering Committee invites you to take advantage of the wide variety of activities featured during the conference. Kicking off the conference Wednesday night will be Library Movie Night. We will be showing a free movie, Storm Center. Set and produced in the 1950's, the main character, a librarian, is branded a communist when she refuses to remove a book about communism from her library in this anti-McCarthyism film. Free prizes and movie munchies will be provided.

Thursday begins with our Exhibits Only time from 8:00 until 9:00 a.m. Our Opening General Session keynote speaker will be Cliff Landis addressing the topic of how changes in policy, culture and technology are determining the future of libraries. We will have two days of informative and stimulating presentations, organizational award dinners and luncheons, Authors' Reception, and exhibits. Our Closing General Session keynote speaker will be an engaging address from Dr. John Barge, Georgia's Superintendent of Education. The GLA Scholarship Raffle extravaganza will be kicked off with lively demonstrations by Georgia's Book Cart Drill Teams.

Take time to network with old friends and introduce yourself to new ones.

COMO XXIII presents many opportunities to listen, learn, inquire and network that will help you leave Athens with new ideas and strategies to improve your knowledge and spark your enthusiasm.

Betsy Razza, GLMA President, GaCOMO XXIII Chair

Featured Speakers

Cliff Landis is the Web Services Librarian at Georgia State University Library in beautiful downtown Atlanta. He is also a researcher, author and speaker on the role of emerging technologies in libraries, social network sites, user-centered service, assessment, and the co-evolution of humanity and technology. Cliff has a diverse range of interests both within and outside of the library field, which help inform his unique perspective on the future of libraries.

Dr. John Barge, Georgia's Superintendent of Education, lives in Floyd County with his wife and two daughters. He has served as a life-long educator in Georgia. In his 20 years in education, Dr. Barge has worked as a high school English teacher, middle school Spanish teacher, assistant principal, principal, and as state Director of Career, Technical and Agriculture Education for the Georgia Department of Education. Dr. Barge has earned three advanced degrees, a master's degree and a specialist's degree from the State University of West Georgia and his doctorate degree in educational leadership from the University of Georgia. He has been recognized as a STAR teacher, as Georgia's Assistant Principal of the Year and as a recipient of the Berry College Alumni Association's Distinguished Achievement Award in 2005.

In January 2011, Dr. Barge was sworn into office as Georgia's 21st State School Superintendent. He is keenly aware of the challenges that Georgia faces as a state and the challenges our students, teachers and local administrators are facing. He is committed to ensuring that the Georgia Department of Education is a service agency that communicates directly with educators in local districts to improve education in Georgia as he seeks to build a strong foundation to benefit our students, teachers and communities.

Mr. Eric (Eric Litwin): Eric is a guitar strumming, book writing, harmonica blowing, banjo picking, song singing, five time national award winning, folksy fun type of guy. He is a New York Times Best Selling author of "Pete the Cat, I Love my White Shoes", published by Harper Collins. Mr. Eric is a popular performing artist focusing on participatory music and interactive literacy. He has played at Lincoln Center as well as schools and libraries across the country. Mr. Eric has recorded several award winning children's music CDs. He is the co-creator of The Learning Groove which offers parent and child music classes. Mr. Eric likes cats, music, books and coffee. You can visit him online at www.ericlitwin.com

James Dean is an accomplished artist, the creator of the lovable Pete the Cat and a New York Times Best Selling Artist of Pete the Cat I Love My White Shoes. He graduated from Auburn University with a degree in electrical engineering in 1982. He had always wanted to study art but was afraid that he would not be able to make a living as an artist. While working as an engineer, he began to draw in his spare time. Eventually he left engineering to pursue art. He never dreamed that he would be spending most of his time drawing pictures of a cat. He and his wife, Kim, who is a sculptor, spend their days working as artist. You can visit him online at www.petethecat.com
