Carterette Webinar: Effective and Valuable Outreach

Assessment Strategies

- Capturing comments: Collect thoughts of motivated participants; can occur on paper, white boards, or other media
- Compiling social media comments or press cuttings: Gather coverage of an event through social media, newspapers, and other media outlets
- Documentation: Capture photographs and anecdotes in a document or report to paint an overall picture of an event
- Face-to-face audience surveys: Administer questionnaires to participants at the event, led by an interviewer
- Focus groups: Interview participants in groups, following the event
- Follow up e-surveys: Collect email addresses during the event and distribute an e-survey via collected emails following the event
- Head counts: Count the number of people present at an event
- Mini interviews during the event: Conduct very short interviews during the event, led by a staff member or volunteer. The type of interview conducted can vary, whether it asks an open-ended question or has a set list of questions to be answered
- Minute papers: Ask participants to take one minute to write down an answer to a question.
- Mystery shoppers: Recruit 'undercover' trained volunteers to evaluate your event and report experiences
- Observations during the event: Note how participants move through the event and how they interface and interact with the event's content
- $\bullet \quad \textit{Self-addressed postcard surveys:} \ \ \text{Use a self-addressed postcard to deliver a short survey}.$
- Vox pops: Document participants' thoughts and feelings via short audio or video recordings.
