   o Karen Doster-Greenleaf, Immediate Past Chair

II. Notes from the Chair, Linh Uong
   o Two initiatives for 2021
     ▪ Professional development committee to organize ACRL/ALD professional development or social opportunities. Would report to either Linh or Lamonica.
     ▪ Research and writing support to ALD members
       ▪ could be redesigned into a research-mentor program and a research interest database
       ▪ help connect this community with other librarians who share similar interests for collaborative projects
     ▪ Linh would like to pursue one if not both initiatives. ALD officers will discuss and bring these up to the division again later this year.

III. Notes from the Vice-Chair, Catherine Manci
   o ALD Research Paper
     ▪ Peer-reviewed jury selection
     ▪ Members of this group submit papers on research in developments in academic libraries

       ▪ Notice of intent due 4/2
     ▪ Group has created supports for those submitting papers.
       ▪ Peer editors will review your paper before final submission.

IV. Notes from Georgia Library Quarterly (GLQ) editor, Virginia Feher
   o With the ALD paper competition comes the opportunity to submit your paper to the GLQ for possible publication
     ▪ Can submit as a peer reviewed paper
       ▪ Peer review requires revision due to difference between presenting at a conference and publishing peer-reviewed article.

Reminders:
  • Anyone can submit a paper for peer review/non-peer review at any time
  • Flexible deadline for articles (due to communication between authors/editors)
