WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FORWARD TO IN '22?

Are you going to an interesting conference? Presenting? Making changes, big or small, in your library? Let us know!

Send us an email at nmrt@georgialibraryassociation.org, and you could be featured in our next newsletter!

A Word from the NMRT chair

We are in the last days of 2021, and I can honestly say that I am proud of us. No matter what this year has thrown at us, we made it.

I am happy to announce that Gina Viarruel, who has done an excellent job of being my Vice-Chair this year, will be taking over in 2022. Gina is amazing, and I am excited to see NMRT's next chapter under her leadership. A major initiative that she will be pursuing is the development of a new mentorship program, so be sure to look out for news about that!

2022 is on the horizon and there are issues, old and new, ahead. Whether you are anticipating challenges to books or trying to find your first librarian position, we at NMRT firmly believe that you've got this. And if you don't? Reach out to us. We are here for you.

Happy Holidays,
Sarah

GET INVOLVED WITH GLA

GLA Midwinter is Coming!

The 2022 GLA Midwinter Planning Meeting will be a FREE, virtual meeting spread out over two days:

- Friday, January 14th, 2022
 - GLA Committees will meet in the morning from 10:00-11:00 AM.
 - GLA Interest Groups will meet in two rounds: 1:00-2:00 PM and 2:00-3:00 PM
- Friday, January 28th, 2022
 - GLA Divisions will meet in the morning from 10:00-11:00 AM.
 - The first GLA Executive Board Meeting of 2022 will be that afternoon from 1:00-3:00 PM.

What is the Midwinter Planning Meeting? It is a time for the Georgia Library community to come together and plan out what the year will look like for different committees and interest groups. During this time, discussions can cover everything from what the upcoming 2022 Georgia Libraries Conference will look like to events that you would like to see NMRT put on. It all depends on your interests!
