

Virtual Panel Discussion

Presented by:
Georgia Library Association's Technical Services Interest Group

ANNOUNCEMENTS & REMINDERS

1. Don't forget to vote for next GLA TSIG officers! Deadline is Nov 20th.
2. Register now for our next event, TSIG co-sponsored Cartette Webinar titled "Suffering Is Optional, but Not Required: Promotion and Tenure in Technical Services"

Presented by:
Georgia Library Association's Technical Services Interest Group

Moderating Zoom & Chat

Kat Greer, GLA TSIG
Secretary

Agnes Scott College

Introducing Panelists

Rebecca Hunnicutt, GLA TSIG
Vice Chair/Chair Elect

Georgia Southern University

Panelist Moderator

Rachel Evans, GLA TSIG
Chair

UGA Law Library

Panelists

Charlene Baxter

LaGrange College Library

Started as Cataloging Librarian in 1976, final title as Library Director before retiring in 2019

Shelley Rogers

University of West Georgia

Over 33 years experience primarily in technical services including OH, PA, IN, MN, and GA

Elaine Hardy

Georgia Public Library Service

Started cataloging at Solinet (now Lyrasis) before joining GPLS in 2003

Cathy Jeffrey

University of North Georgia

Previously Clayton State University over 30 years in technical services

What is a favorite thing
that you couldn't live without
when working in tech services?

What led you
to your first
librarian
position and
why?

What has been the biggest change in
your career from
when you first started until today?

What do you
feel was the biggest trend
you have encountered in your careers?

What advice
would you give for those who may be struggling with inherent
tech-translation
responsibilities?

Those of you that have been
managers, did you
want to be one or
did it evolve into
that role over
time?

What have been
your biggest challenges when it comes to supervising
others?

Could you each
share a lesson you
learned about
understanding or
resolving conflicts
in the library?

Are there any tips
you can share for managing
demanding workloads and
work-life balance?

What advice
would you give to librarians who
want to grow
professionally but
aren't sure where
to start?

Questions?

Charlene Baxter

LaGrange College Library

Started as Cataloging Librarian in 1976, final title as Library Director before retiring in 2019

Shelley Rogers

University of West Georgia

Over 33 years experience primarily in technical services including OH, PA, IN, MN, and GA

Elaine Hardy

Georgia Public Library Service

Started cataloging at Solient (now Lyrasis) before joining GPLS in 2003

Cathy Jeffrey

University of North Georgia

Previously Clayton State University over 30 years in technical services