

Georgia Library Association Technical Services Interest Group Meeting Minutes
Georgia Libraries Conference in Macon, GA
Thursday, October 13, 2022

Attendance:

Courtney Berge, Augusta University
Rhiannon Bruner, Wesleyan College
Teresa Burk, Atlanta History Center
Raymond Goslow, Georgia Public Library Service (Secretary)
Marcy Griffin, Georgia College
Rebecca Hunnicutt, Georgia Southern University (Chair)
Jessica Lee, Valdosta State University
Tiffany Little, Georgia Public Library Service
Meghan Newberry, Conyers-Rockdale Library System
Linh Uong, University of North Georgia

Meeting in Session: 11:00AM

Welcome

Nominations

- We have 1 nomination for Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect and 2 nominations for Secretary
- Ballots will be sent out via email on November 2 and will be due by December 1
- Make sure your membership is renewed and you are marked as a TSIG member so you can vote

Bylaws Updates

- Updates of language regarding ALCTS were approved by group in 2020 but not sent to Board
 - The incoming chair will get the Board approval taken care of in 2023
- Updates on election rules were approved by group in 2021 and have been approved by Board

Open Floor - Member News and Discussion

- Jessica Lee and Rob Griggs-Taylor have an upcoming article and book chapter on burnout
 - Article will be in next issue of GLQ
 - Focuses on burnout among academic library workers who are parents
- Members discussed various causes of burnout
 - Budget challenges/cuts
 - Staff shortages
- Everyone agreed that having support from tech services colleagues across the state is important

Meeting Adjourned: 11:21AM

Next Meeting: GLA Midwinter Meeting 2023 (exact date TBD)

Respectfully Submitted,
Raymond Goslow
Secretary